* Rental date and location is not secured until a 25% down payment is received and an event contract is signed.

* Rental time is calculated for the entire duration of your event including set up and clean up.

* You are responsible for all decorations and table coverings. We provide trash containers, liners and trash removal.

*We are a working farm; we will try our best to keep farm related activities to a minimum during the time of your event. The parking area is a common parking area and may be used for several events at one time. We also ask that children are under adult supervision at all times while at the farm to prevent accidents and injuries.
